

Pat Tate, Cardiac Consultant

Pat Tate is passionate about AEDs. "I take pride in the fact that we offer products that potentially can save someone's life." That passion coupled with the desire to exceed the customer's expectations make Pat a great fit for Cardiac Solutions.

Prior to coming onboard with Cardiac Solutions Pat was a project coordinator with the Marketing / Communications Group for Baptist Health System and most recently served as Executive Director for the Greystone YMCA in Birmingham. Pat graduated from Livingston University with a B.A. in English and was chosen to attend The US Navy Leaders to Sea Program and FBI Citizens Academy. Pat and his wife Amy have two children Emily and Walker. He enjoys golf and officiates High School Football.
