

Tyler Watts, Cardiac Consultant

Tyler Watts is a Cardiac Consultant for the State of Alabama. Tyler has been in this role since January 2014. With over 11 years of experience in the Insurance industry, Tyler understands liability concerns facing corporations and small business owners. He helps implement programs to mitigate liability exposure while protecting both employees and clients from the risk of Sudden Cardiac Arrest.

During the fall Tyler serves as cohost of the pre and postgame radio shows for Alabama football. Tyler is also a moderator and participant in the Fan Fare events at the SEC Championship game in Atlanta each year. He continues to serve community service organizations such as the Jimmy Raines Foundation, the Big Oak Ranch, and Children's Hospital. Tyler travels throughout the region speaking to Quarterback clubs, Alabama Alumni chapters, and other collegiate organizations. Tyler also speaks to area schools about character and self-discipline.

Prior to Cardiac Solutions, Tyler was the Alabama Sales Representative with Puritan Bennett/ Tyco Healthcare. Tyler holds a BS in Marketing and a Masters degree in HES from the University of Alabama.

Tyler is married to Jana Watts and the proud father of four children.
